Reflections on the Eucharist

As they visit our Cathedral, people often ask for the translation of the Latin in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel area of the Cathedral which we are glad to provide for your spiritual enrichment.

You have given them bread from Heaven, containing in itself all sweetness!

Arch behind Tabernacle Tower/ Words used during Benediction

O Sacred banquet in which Christ is received, the memory of his passion is renewed; where the soul is filled with grace and a pledge of future glory is given to us.

Base of Dome/ By St. Thomas Aquinas

Bowing down then, let us worship so great a Sacrament. The old law gives place to a new rite; faith supplies the lack of sight. To the Father and the Son be praise and glory, salvation, honor power and blessing; to him, who from both proceeds, be the same worship.

Sing, my tongue, the mystery of the glorious body and precious blood, which the King of the nations, fruit of a royal womb, poured out as the world's ransom. Word made flesh, by his word he changes bread into his body and wine becomes the blood of Christ. Though our senses fail us, faith alone will make will make a true heart firm.
