I did not anticipate that a random summer thunderstorm would change my community for a month and counting. On August 17th, a couple of fires started due to lightning strikes a few miles away from my small town in Northern California. These seemingly small fires grew and shortly after a large part of my town was experiencing mandatory evacuations from their home.

These fires continued to grow, connecting with each other to create the North Complex and suffocating the town with smoke, resulting in record breaking hazardous air quality. About 3 weeks later the blanket of smoke left but the wind arrived. On the night of Labor Day, our town lost power for two days. It was refreshing to finally see blue sky, but the wind threatened to fuel the current fires as well as heightened the possibility of new ones to ignite.

We looked forward to the power potentially coming back on Wednesday night yet did not realize that we'd have yet another problem. That morning we received an advisory evacuation notice. It didn't feel real as we sprung into action and packed up everything we could from photos on the wall and decades of photo albums to our clothes and toiletries. We did not know when we would have to leave our home, but we quickly prepared.

It's easy to immediately blame God in these times of crisis and this specific week felt like each day fell into chaos. When we received that evacuation warning, we were still without power and with no certainty of when it would come back on. I felt frustrated thinking that just when we might get our power back on and our lives would feel somewhat normal again (or as normal as one can feel in this pandemic), we might have to evacuate our home. All I wanted was for everything to stop. I wanted to have our power back on, smoke gone from the air, and to take a hot shower.

I am so grateful that I had the Young Adults during this time. They offered prayers and support as I went through one of the craziest weeks of my life. I found that by being a part of this community, I didn't turn from God but came closer to Him, asking for His guidance, protection, and peace. My prayers were answered and I did feel peace through it all. Everything was out of my control, but in God's hands and that is exactly what I needed to remember. When everything felt like it was crumbling down around me, I looked up to Him and found peace and protection. The hardworking firefighters established a controlled edge near my neighborhood and we were not forced to evacuate. Our power came back on and my family was able to rest easy believing that we were going to be okay. Even in the uncertainty,

- Kendal Hicks

I felt peace and knew that whatever happened was in God's control, not mine. Letting go of the need to control and the fear of the uncertainty was the most liberating experience and was exactly what I needed to do to be closer to our Lord.

WATER FOR ALL

YOUNG ADULTS

 @ cathedral.youngadult/

This week's Gospel speaks to us of a parable about two sons who hear the father's request to get involved in the family vineyard. One says "yes" and one says "no". But the one who agrees to work never actually does and the one who refuses actually goes out and works. The point of the parable is to reveal that the people who appear to ignore the Father are the ones who are actually listening to Him and obeying Him.

These days, the concern may not be whether we are obeying the Father's commands but whether we are hearing His voice at all. The Father is asking each one of us to work in His vineyard, His Church. During this time, it can be hard to figure out how you might be able to get more involved. September is traditionally the month we present our Ministry Fair. Because of Covid-19, our Ministry Fair is not happening, or at least, not this month. Still, this is an important time for each of us to pray about how we can stay involved in helping the Cathedral Parish continue our ministry in downtown Sacramento.

I thank all of you who have continued to support the parish financially during this time and encourage anyone who has missed giving their Sunday offering to understand how important your sacrifice is, both for the good of the parish and your own spiritual journey. As well, many ministries have continued to function during this time. This includes the Pastoral and Finance Councils, the teams who set up for Mass outside, do contact tracing, and camera work, religious education, bulletin and website information, Brown Bag Lunch ministry and many others. Consider reaching out to see if you might be of help in these ministries. However, praying for the parish will always be the most significant "work" we can accomplish in God's vineyard. Please pray for our world and country, for an end to abortion, for unity amongst all God's children, for an embrace of all life and a rejection of fear and all that leads to darkness and evil. Our prayers respond to the Father's call and reveal our love for both the Father and His church. May God continue to bless you and your families.

Fr. Michael

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING #1:

Life and Dignity of the Human Person

The Catholic Church proclaims that human life is sacred and that the dignity of the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society. This belief is the foundation of all the principles of our social teaching. In our society, human life is under direct attack from abortion and euthanasia. The value of human life is being threatened by cloning, embryonic stem cell research, and the use of the death penalty. The intentional targeting of civilians in war or terrorist attacks is always wrong. Catholic teaching also calls on us to work to avoid war. Nations must protect the right to life by finding increasingly effective ways to prevent conflicts and resolve them by peaceful means. We believe that every person is precious, that people are more important than things, and that the measure of every institution is whether it threatens or enhances the life and dignity of the human person.

Come join Fr. Michael every morning for

A Moment of Prayer
with Fr. Michael O'Reilly

<https://is.gd/prayermoment>

El evangelio de esta semana nos habla de una parábola sobre dos hijos que escuchan la petición del padre de involucrarse en el viñedo familiar. Uno dice "sí" y otro dice "no". Pero el que acepta trabajar nunca lo hace y el que se niega sale y trabaja. El objetivo de la parábola es revelar que las personas que parecen ignorar al Padre son las que realmente lo escuchan y lo obedecen.

En estos días, la preocupación puede no ser si estamos obedeciendo los mandamientos del Padre, sino si estamos escuchando Su voz. El Padre nos pide a cada uno de nosotros que trabajemos en Su viña, Su Iglesia. Durante este tiempo, puede ser difícil averiguar cómo podría involucrarse más. Septiembre es tradicionalmente el mes en que presentamos nuestra Feria del Ministerio. Debido a Covid-19, nuestra Feria de Ministerios no se llevará a cabo, o al menos no este mes. Aún así, este es un momento importante para que cada uno de nosotros ore sobre cómo podemos mantenernos involucrados en ayudar a la Parroquia de la Catedral a continuar nuestro ministerio en el centro de Sacramento.

Les agradezco a todos los que continúan apoyando económicamente a la parroquia durante este tiempo y ánimo a todos los que han fallado dar la ofrenda dominical para que comprendan lo importante que es su sacrificio, tanto por el bien de la parroquia como por su propio camino espiritual. Además, muchos ministerios han seguido funcionando durante este tiempo. Esto incluye los Consejos Pastorales y Financieros, los equipos que se preparan para la Misa al aire libre, hacen seguimiento de contactos y trabajo de cámara, educación religiosa, información de boletines y sitios de internet, ministerio Brown Bag Lunch y muchos otros. Considere ayudar en uno de estos ministerios. Sin embargo, orar por la parroquia siempre será el "trabajo" más importante que podamos lograr en la viña de Dios. Oren por nuestro mundo y nuestro país, por el fin del aborto, por la unidad entre todos los hijos de Dios, y para acoger la vida y un rechazo al miedo y todo lo que conduce a la oscuridad y al mal. Que nuestras oraciones respondan al llamado del Padre y revelen nuestro amor tanto por el Padre como por Su iglesia. Que Dios continúe bendiciéndolos a ustedes y a sus familias.

Padre Miguel

ENSEÑANZA SOCIAL CATÓLICA #1:

La Vida y La Dignidad de la Persona

La Iglesia Católica proclama que la vida humana es sagrada y que la dignidad de la persona es la base de una visión moral para la sociedad. Esta creencia es el fundamento de todos los principios de nuestra enseñanza social. En nuestra sociedad, la vida humana está bajo el ataque directo del aborto y la eutanasia. La vida humana está amenazada por la clonación, las investigaciones sobre las células madre embrionarias y por la aplicación de la pena de muerte. El poner intencionalmente la mira en la población civil durante una guerra o un ataque terrorista siempre está mal. La enseñanza católica nos llama siempre a hacer todo lo posible para evitar una guerra. Las naciones deben proteger el derecho a la vida encontrando maneras eficaces para evitar los conflictos y para resolverlos por medios pacíficos. Creemos que toda persona tiene un valor inestimable, que las personas son más importantes que las cosas y que la medida de cada institución se basa en si amenaza o acrecienta la vida y la dignidad de la persona humana.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
Is It the Thought That Counts?

I can remember times when I received a gift that I would not have chosen for myself. At those times I certainly thought to myself that "it was the thought that counts." I was happy that the gift-giver thought of me at all. Then there have been times when my children have not given me a gift and then chose to tell me all about what they were going to give me. They would then follow it up by saying, "it was the thought that really counts." Really?! I don't think so. I could think of sending my wife on a cruise, but that is not in any way the same as going on the cruise. I think there are times when all of us think we are more generous than we are, simply because we were thinking about being generous.

This way of thinking can be dangerous. Jesus teaches us to say what we mean and mean what we say. The intentionality of our actions is important, but intentionality without action is meaningless. How we act and what we give serves as evidence of our intentions and indicates where our heart truly lies. If we fool ourselves into thinking we are someone we are not, it can become difficult to see the truth. We need to look for the fruit in our lives. We need to make sure our desires and thoughts are moving us to act. You know that other saying about intentions, don't you? Don't pave the road to a place no one wants to end up with your intentions. Instead, let your intentions and actions lead others to another place where Jesus can be found.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

PRAY FOR CALIFORNIA

Almighty God, we pray through the intercession of your beloved, Saint Florian, those courageous men and women fighting fire in California will be protected and strengthened by Your providence. Bring consolation to those who have lost loved ones, dwellings, and their sense of security. May they find a home in your gracious love and a hope in the generous works of your servants here on earth. Amen.

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"When John came to you in the way of righteousness, you did not believe him; but tax collectors and prostitutes did. Yet even when you saw that, you did not later change your minds and believe him."

- Matthew 21:32

常年期第二十六主日

因為若翰來到你們這裡履行了正義，你們仍不相信他，稅吏和娼妓倒相信了；至於你們，見了後，仍不悔悟去相信他。
。瑪21:32

每日當責— 在日常生活
中體會天主— 心意最重要嗎？

當我在收到的禮物時，我無法自己選擇想收到的禮物。那時我私下認為，"這是禮輕情意重，" 我很高興送禮物的人會想到我。以前，當我的孩子要送禮物給我之前，會先告訴我，他們將要送甚麼禮物給我，然後他們會說，"這是我真正的心意。" 真的嗎?! 我不認為是這樣。我想到我要送妻子去搭遊輪，但是送她去遊輪，和真正上了郵輪是不同的。有時候我們都認為自己是慷慨的，因為僅僅擁有慷慨的想法而已是很容易的。

這種思維方式可能是有危險的。耶穌教導我們說：我要說出心中真正的意思，而真正的意思也正如我所說所做。我們行動的意向是很重要的，但沒有意向的行動也是無意義的。我們的行為方式和所做的服務，證明了我們心中的意念，表明了我們心中的真實所在。假如我們自欺欺人，自認為是某人，就會很難看清真相。我們需要追尋生活中的果實，我們要確保我們的願望和想法促使我們採取行動，你知道關於意念的其他說法，是嗎？不要為沒有人願意與你達成的意念，去鋪平道路，取而代之的，是讓你的意念和行動引導他人到可以找著耶穌的地方。
